

CGPWA mulls initiatives to make it vibrant: Khoda

JL NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, Jan 8: The Central Govt Pensioners' Welfare Association, Jammu is mulling more initiatives to make the body having huge experienced human resource more vibrant and service to the society. At a meeting, first in the new year, chaired by its President Kuldeep Khoda, some proposals for serving the society were discussed.

It was decided that former DGP & CVC Kuldeep Khoda, State Election Commissioner & former Chief Secretary B R Sharma, former Director General DRDO, Dr. Sudharshan Kumar and former Director GSI (Geochemistry) H S Sodhi would deliver lectures on specific topics to more than 100 inmates of BALGRAN, Home for destitute children in next two months. The CGPWA and BALGRAN have agreed to work in unison to upgrade the knowledge of these students. Inclusion of the divyang students of the Samaj Kalyan Kendra, another reputed NGO of J&K dedicated to welfare of deaf & dumb children in these awareness lectures will also be considered to benefit them as well.

Addressing the members, Khoda referred to the presence of about seventy members in today's meeting despite the chilling cold and said that it showed that the Association has become quite vibrant where issues relating to pensioners related matters are discussed besides organising excursions and musical evenings. He also referred to the Medical Talks being clubbed with Association's events and said that these had been found to be useful for elders and would continue this year. The Association has been observing national important Days and fortnight programs like Swachhta Abhiyan, Constitution Day, Yoga Diwas etc and playing its role in the society. He referred to some issues of pensioners & allied Body Samaj Kalyan Kendre that were raised with the new Chief Secretary Atal Dulloo at another function last month and said that these would be further discussed with him for resolution after seeking formal appointment.

Earlier, the General Secretary K B Jandial apprised the members that the second CGHS Wellness Centre is being established in Trikuta Nagar which is likely to be functional in two months' time. This has been the long pending demand of the Association. This Wellness Centre which will also have provisions for Ayurveda & Homeopathy Doctors for consultation and medicines for the CGHS beneficiaries The President accompanied by the General Secretary has inspected the building which will house the Wellness Centre. The Union MOS, Ministry of Pension & Pensioners' Welfare & PMO Dr. Jitender Singh & his Pension Deptt have played an important role in restoring the second Wellness Centre to Jammu. Patron S S Wazir, B R Sharma, Dr Sudarshan Kumar also spoke on the occasion. The Secretary of CGPWA B B Magotra conducted the function while former IGP and member EC M A Anjum presented a formal vote of thanks.

'CGHS 2nd Wellness Centre in Jammu soon'

NL CORRESPONDENT

JAMMU TAWI, JAN 08 The Central Govt Pensioners' Welfare Association, Jammu is mulling more initiatives to make the body having huge experienced human resource more vibrant and service to the society.

At a meeting, first in the new year, chaired by its President Kuldeep Khoda, some proposals for serving the society were discussed. It was decided that former DGP & CVC Kuldeep Khoda, State Election Commissioner & former Chief Secretary B R Sharma, former Director General DRDO, Dr. Sudharshan Kumar and former Director GSI (Geochemistry) H S Sodhi would deliver lectures on specific topics to more than 100 inmates of BALGRAN, Home for des-months. The CGPWA and BALGRAN have agreed to work in unison to upgrade the knowledge of these students. Inclusion of the divyang students of the Samaj Kalyan Kendra, another reputed NGO of J&K dedicated to welfare of deaf & dumb children in these awareness lectures will also be considered to benefit them as well.

Another proposal mooted

sider establishment of a Dignity Centre for the welfare of senior citizens under Maintenance & Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act 2007 with the help of the Social Welfare Department. Addressing the members, Khoda referred to the presence of about seventy members in today's meeting despite the chilling cold and said that it showed that quite vibrant where issues relating to pensioners related matters are discussed besides organizing excursions and musical evenings. The Association has been observing national important Days and fortnight programs like Swachhta Abhiyan, Constitution Day, Yoga Diwas etc and playing its role in the society. He referred to some issues of pensioners & allied Body Samaj Kalyan Kendre that were raised with the new Chief Secretary Atal Dulloo at another function last month and said that these would be further discussed with him for resolution after seeking formal appointment. Earlier, the General Secretary K B Jandial apprised the members that the second CGHS Wellness Centre is being established in Trikuta Nagar which is likely to be functional in two months' time. This has been the long pending demand of the Association. The Union MoS, Ministry of Pension & Pensioners' Welfare & PMO & his Pension Deptt have played an important role in restoring the second Wellness Centre to Jammu.

CGPWA mulls initiatives to make it vibrant: Khoda

GJ REPORT

JAMMU, JAN 8: The Central Govt Pensioners' Welfare Association Jammu (CGPWAJ) is considering new initiatives to enhance its vibrancy and contribute to society.

During a meeting chaired by President Kuldeep Khoda, proposals were discussed including lectures by distinguished individuals for over 100 inmates of BALGRAN, a Home for Destitute Children.

Former DGP & CVC Kuldeep Khoda; State Election Commissioner B R Sharma; former DRDO Director General Dr. Sudharshan Kumar and former GSI Director H S Sodhi will deliver the lectures.

The Association is also exploring the establishment of a Dignity Centre for the welfare of senior citizens under the Maintenance & Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act 2007 in collaboration with the Social Welfare Department.

Additionally, medical talks will continue to be organized alongwith events

CGPWA President, Kuldeep Khoda addressing a meeting at Jammu.

to address the health concerns of the elders.

Addressing the members, Khoda said that it showed that the Association has become quite vibrant where issues relating to pensioners related matters are discussed besides organising excursions and musical evenings.

He also referred to the Medical Talks being clubbed with Association's events and said that these had been found to be useful for elders and would continue this year. The Association has been observing national important Days and fortnight programmes like Swachhta Abhiyan, Constitution Day, Yoga Diwas etc and playing its role in the society.

He referred to some issues of pensioners & allied Body Samaj Kalyan Kendre that were raised with the new Chief Secretary, Atal Dulloo at another function last month and said that these would be further discussed with him for resolution after seeking formal appointment.

General Secretary, K B Jandial informed the members that the second CGHS Wellness Centre is being established in Trikuta Nagar, which is expected to be functional in two months. The association has been actively involved in addressing the issues of pensioners and contributing to various societal initiatives, making it a vibrant and dynamic organization.

Media is an important mean in a healthy democracy: BJP

GJ REPORT

JAMMU, JAN 8: Media Department of Jammu & Kashmir Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) held a review meeting at party headquarter

CGPWA mulls initiatives to make it vibrant: Khoda

EARLY TIMES REPORT

JAMMU, Jan 8: The Central Govt Pensioners' Welfare Association, Jammu is mulling more initiatives to make the body having huge experienced human resource more vibrant and service to the society.

At a meeting, first in the new year, chaired by its President Kuldeep Khoda, some proposals for serving the society were discussed.

It was decided that former DGP & CVC Kuldeep Khoda, State Election Commissioner & former Chief Secretary B R Sharma, former Director General DRDO, Dr. Sudharshan Kumar and former Director GSI (Geochemistry) H S Sodhi would deliver lectures on specific topics to more than 100 inmates of BALGRAN, Home for destitute children in next two months. The CGPWA and BALGRAN have agreed to work in unison to upgrade the knowledge of these students. Inclusion of the divyang students of the Samaj Kalyan Kendra, another reputed NGO of J&K dedicated to welfare of deaf & dumb children in these awareness lectures will also be considered to benefit them as well.

Another proposal mooted in the meeting was to consider establishment of a Dignity Centre for the welfare of senior citizens under Maintenance & Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act 2007 with the help of the Social Welfare Department.

Addressing the members, Khoda referred to the presence of about seventy members in today's meeting despite the chilling cold and said that it showed that the Association has become quite vibrant where issues relating to pensioners related matters are discussed

Constitution Day, Yoga Diwas etc and playing its role in the society. He referred to some issues of pensioners & allied Body Samaj Kalyan Kendre that were raised with the new Chief Secretary Atal Dulloo at another function last month and said that these would be further discussed with him for resolution after seeking formal appointment.

Earlier, the General Secretary K B Jandial

for the CGHS beneficiaries The President accompanied by the General Secretary has inspected the building which will house the Wellness Centre. The Union MOS, Ministry of Pension & Pensioners' Welfare & PMO Dr. Jitender Singh & his Pension Deptt have played an important role in restoring the second Wellness Centre to Jammu. The WC was in existence as a Postal Wellness Centre in the past

Activists of CGPWA during a meeting at Jammu.

besides organising excursions and musical evenings. He also referred to the Medical Talks being clubbed with Association's events and said that these had been found to be useful for elders and would continue this year.

The Association has been observing national important Days and fortnight programs like Swachhta Abhiyan, apprised the members that the second CGHS Wellness Centre is being established in Trikuta Nagar which is likely to be functional in two months' time. This has been the long pending demand of the Association.

This Wellness Centre which will also have provisions for Ayurveda & Homeopathy Doctors for consultation and medicines which was merged with CGHS along with over 20 other such Wellness Centres across the country.

Patron S S Wazir, B R Sharma, Dr Sudarshan Kumar also spoke on the occasion. The Secretary of CGPWA B B Magotra conducted the function while former IGP and member EC M A Anjum presented a formal vote of thanks.

CGHS second Wellness centre in Jammu soon

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Central Govt Pensioners' Welfare Association, Jammu is mulling more initiatives to make the body having huge experienced human resource more vibrant and service to the society.

At a meeting, first in the new year, chaired by its President Kuldeep Khoda, some proposals for serving the society were discussed.

It was decided that former DGP & CVC Kuldeep Khoda, State Election Commissioner & former Chief Secretary B R Sharma, former Director General DRDO, Dr. Sudharshan Kumar and former Director GSI (Geochemistry) H S Sodhi would deliver lectures on specific topics to more than 100 inmates of BALGRAN, Home for destitute children in next two months.

The CGPWA and BALGRAN have agreed to work in unison to upgrade the knowledge of these students. Inclusion of the Divyang students of the Samaj Kalyan Kendra, another reputed NGO of J&K dedicated to welfare of deaf & dumb children in these awareness lectures will also be considered to benefit them as well.

Another proposal mooted in the meeting was to consider establishment of a Former DGP & CVC Kuldeep Khoda addressing meeting of CGPWA.

Dignity Centre for the welfare of senior citizens under Maintenance & Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act 2007 with the help of the Social Welfare Department.

Addressing the members, Khoda referred to the presence of about seventy members in today's meeting despite the chilling cold and said that it showed that the Association has become quite vibrant where issues relating to pensioners related matters are discussed besides organising excursions and musical evenings.

He also referred to the Medical Talks being clubbed with Association's events and said that these had been found to be useful for elders and would continue this year.

The Association has been observing national important Days and fortnight programs like Swachhta Abhiyan, Constitution Day, Yoga Diwas etc and playing its role in the society. He referred to some issues of pensioners & allied Body Samaj Kalyan Kendra that were raised with the new Chief Secretary Atal Dulloo at another function last month and said that these would be further discussed with him for resolution after seeking formal appointment.

Earlier, the General Secretary K B Jandial apprised the members that the second CGHS Wellness Centre is being established in Trikuta Nagar which is likely to be functional in two months' time. This has been the long pending demand of the Association. This Wellness Centre which will also have provisions for Ayurveda & Homeopathy Doctors for consultation and medicines for the CGHS beneficiaries. The President accompanied by the General Secretary has inspected the building which will house the Wellness Centre. The Union MOS, Ministry of Pension & Pensioners' Welfare & PMO Dr. Jitender Singh & his Pension Deptt have played an important role in restoring the second Wellness Centre to Jammu. The WC was in existence as a Postal Wellness Centre in the past which was merged with CGHS along with over 20 other such Wellness Centres across the country.

Patron S S Wazir, B R Sharma, Dr Sudarshan Kumar also spoke on the occasion. The Secretary of CGPWA B B Magotra conducted the function while former IGP and member EC M A Anjum presented a formal vote of thanks.

and treatment machinery and respective R&B (PW) Divisions.

Kuldeep Khoda President CGPWA addressing during a meeting held in Jammu on Monday.

Make CGPWA more vibrant to serve society, says Khoda

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Jan 8: Kuldeep Khoda, President of Central Govt Pensioners' Welfare Association (CGPWA), Jammu today addressed the members to make the association more vibrant and service to the society.

Khoda was addressing a meeting of CGPWA, which held here today to discuss some proposals for serving the society.

Addressing the members, Khoda referred to the presence of about seventy members in today's meeting despite the chilling cold and said that it showed that the Association has become quite vibrant where issues relating to pensioners related matters are discussed besides organising excursions and musical evenings.

He also referred to the Medical Talks being clubbed with Association's events and said that these had been found to be useful for elders and would continue this year.

The Association has been observing national important Days and fortnight programs like Swachhta Abhiyan, Constitution

Day, Yoga Diwas etc and playing its role in the society.

Earlier, the General Secretary K B Jandial apprised the members that the second CGHS Wellness Centre is being established in Trikuta Nagar which is likely to be functional in two months' time. This has been the long pending demand of the Association. This Wellness Centre which will also have provisions for Ayurveda & Homeopathy Doctors for consultation and medicines for the CGHS beneficiaries.

The President accompanied by the General Secretary has inspected the building which will house the Wellness Centre. The WC was in existence as a Postal Wellness Centre in the past which was merged with CGHS along with over 20 other such Wellness Centres across the country.

Patron S S Wazir, B R Sharma, Dr Sudarshan Kumar also spoke on the occasion.

The Secretary of CGPWA B B Magotra conducted the function while former IGP and member EC M A Anjum presented a formal vote of thanks.